AUGUST - 1976

NO. 1

ALTHOUGH WE'VE SAID SO PERSONALLY, IT IS APPROPRIATE THAT WE, AND ESPECIALLY THE ATTENDEES AT OUR DUBUQUE FLY-IN, TELL THE CONVENTION PLANNERS WHAT A GRAND JOB THEY DID. SO TO DICK FUNKE, JOHN FRIEDERICK, ART KLEVE AND PHIL SCHMITT A ROUSING THANK YOU !!!!!!

A LOT OF THE "OLD " REGULARS SHOWED UP PLUS WE MET QUITE A FEW NEW FACES --- ALL OF WHOM WERE IMPRESSED WITH THE PROCEEDINGS.

AS IT DOES EVERY YEAR, THE CONCELEBRATED LITURGY WAS THE HIGHLIGHT OF THE CONVENTION. BUT EVERYTHING ELSE, THE BOAT TRIP, THE COLLINS RADIO PROGRAM AND LUNCHEON, THE COOKOUT AND THE BANQUET WERE SUPERB. HIP HIP HOORAY FOR IOWAY!!! WE'RE VERY MUCH IN DEBT TO YOU.

BRIEFS FROM HERE AND THERE ...

Marc Tilia writes this brief message from Sento Se, Brazil.

"I'm still flying about 300 hours a year, visiting 55 strips within the parish. I use the Cessna 206 with Robertson to good advantage, and maybe will replace the 1941 Interstate with a Varieze to save gas. Sorry I'll miss Dubuque."

Victor Schoenberger sent the enclosed item from MONASTERY SEASONS, the newsletter put out by the Trappist Monks of New Melleray Abbey, Dubuque, Iowa.

BAVARIAN SISTER WINS COVETED AWARD

Sister Doris, 27 yr. old Franciscan nun from Mellersdorf near Munich, recently passed her brewmaster's examination with the highest grade, topping 30 male competitors. The convent brewery averages 840 gallons a week, marketed under the trade name of "Mellersdorfer Klosterbraeu."

Sister Doris has been nominated for the St. Lutgarde Bicentennial Women's Lib Award. The next time you drop by the friendly neighborhood tavern, be sure and order "Mellersdorf Klosterbraeu" on the first round. Because after the first round you won't be able to pronounce it.

Vic wonders what Joe Pickett who's brewery we toured in Dubuque at convention time thinks of this or if he knows about her.

Ev and Mel Hemann attended the National Marriage Encounter convention in Dayton, Ohio July 22 - 25. One of the workshops at the conference was conducted by fellow NAPPER Msgr. Korby Thielen of the Josephinum.

Two couples from Mason City went along and the trip was made via Cherokee Six.

get up and go to Iowa Falls...

John Herzog of St. Mark's Church, Iowa Falls, Iowa will host the Central Region's Fall meeting. Activities are planned beginning at 4:00 pm on Monday, October 4 and will continue on till the end.

John says that because October 4 is Yom Kippur, a day of atonement, he will serve only broccoli and radishes to make up for all the bad landings this past year.

This will be the only notification on this meeting so mark it on your calendars NOW and let John know you're coming. His address: St. Mark's Church, 415 Main St. Box 609.
Iowa Falls, Iowa 50126. Phone: 515-648-9547.

CONVENTION 1976

After the Monday night brewery tour and steak fry in the park the group left bright and early for a 3½ hour cruise up Old Man River. Destination: North Buena Vista.

Relaxing after drinking in the beauty of scenic, hilly north east Iowa. Pictured are hosts John Friederick, Art Kleve and Phil Schmitt.

Tuesday evening found all gathered at Robert's for dinner and the annual meeting.

Collins radio of Cedar Rapids hosted the 9 plane loads of NAPP members on Wednesday. Members are shown looking over the Collins Gulfstream G159 and all the "goodies" inside.

Our favorite air traffic controller, Nancy Johnson, joined us for lunch and a picture with Bob Kirsch of Abiqui, N.M. Irv Weber sneaked in. (Nancy is co-editor of the newsletter).

The group gathered for a final picture before boarding the bus to St. Raphael's Cathedral for the Liturgy and the banquet. Within a matter of hours Convention '76 was history.

CONVENTION 1977

David White of Everett, Washington, will be the host of the 1977 National Convention. At this point in time, obviously, no plans have been finalized. However, it will once again be in July. The official convention dates are July 12 & 13. You might want to mark that on the new calendar and make plans to take in the beauty of the Northwest while enjoying the camaraderie of NAPPers and their guests.

Details will follow in subsequent newsletters.
